

NEEDED: A Prison for Baba Yaga

Melodic has dubbed it

THE GLASS MOUNTAIN

Problems

- 1) must look like something else (Maerwynne has to trick her inside)
- 2) must be able to hold and resist her magic

Solution to Problem 1:

- ~~I. Prison shaped like a pit~~
- ~~II. Prison shaped like a lake~~
- III. Prison shaped like a mountain

MUST BE HOLLOW!!

Height: 7 Furlongs High

Circumference: 11 Furlongs around

Solution to Problem 2:

- a) adapt spell that turns a regular vessel into a magic holding vessel (the same one on the 26th page, which first used to hold the Water of Life)
- b) adjust the scale by 10,000
- c) forge iron versions of
 - Gullveig's runes (3,333)
 - Penhulbur's marks (3,333)
 - Arianrhod's symbols (3,333)
- d) Figure out something to hold the symbols

IDEA	MAERWYNNE + PIKARD'S THOUGHTS
ask a Fey to bind it in a circle of trees??	M: We can't trust the Fey. P: A fairy would warn Baba Yaga.
Ice?	M: it will melt come spring.
Metal?	P: Will that not look like a prison?
Glass???? (Made unshatterable by magic)	They said nothing! as Melodie says, no comment from those two is the best recommendation.

* Glass is made of fire + sand. We need miles of sand - didn't that genie make a desert on Atlantis?

To forge the glass mountain, we'll need the scales of 157 dragons or we can call in favors from the following magic users:

- Naais, the Destroyer
- Lord Keitall aspenwind (hopefully not)
- The Midearsen magus (all 3)

Note to Self: Very fancy dinner party outside Santhrua entrance + Mithras's gala (perfect for Mithras + don't drink!!)
